Pitching Basics

By Karen Jansen – LPGA Professional, www.lpga.com

One of the most challenging shots in golf is the pitch shot. Follow the simple guidelines below to improve your pitching and lower your scores!

- The Pitch Shot spends more time in the air than on the ground
- Use a lofted club like a pitching or sand wedge
- Open your stance
- Ball position in the middle
- Weight on forward foot
- Hinge wrists on the backswing
- Hit down to make the golf ball go up in the air.

Pitching Essentials: A pitch or pitch shot, usually played with a highly lofted club like a pitching or sand wedge, is designed to go a short distance with a high ball flight to land softly on the green. Here are some basic fundamentals to help you become a better short game player.

1. Stance is narrow and open
2. Weight favors the target foot
3. Hands, arms, and shoulders form a triangle with the hands ahead of the ball at address position
4. Hinge your wrists on the backswing
5. Weight is retained on target foot
6. Accelerate your swing on the downswing, keep hands moving
7. Keep your target side firm as you finish swing
8. Distance determines the length of the swing

Answer: Oh my! It's not a one stroke penalty, it's two! You may not touch the sand in the hazard before you make your stroke [Rule 13-4 and Decision 13-4/31].

DON'T FORGET – Be good to our course; replace divots, rake bunkers and repair ball marks.
