Week 7, June 12-16, 2017

Sunshine and Hole-in-One!

Robin Moore got a hole-in-one while vacationing in Daytona Beach, Florida, on May 25. She used her pitching wedge at 53 yards to sink hole #13 at Oceans Golf Club. Congratulations!

KNOW & PLAY BY THE RULES

To play two, or not to play?

Q. Can you cover what to do when you are playing and you are not sure about a rule? Can you play 2 balls and then determine which ball to use after you find out the correct way you should have played the ball when you are finished? We had an incident last week where that happened but instead of playing 2 balls once they got back to the clubhouse and determined they played the hole incorrectly, they went back out and played the hole the correct way.

A. In the instance you described, the player(s) in question should have played 2 balls and recorded the score for each. Once they returned to the clubhouse, the situation should have been explained to Kirk for him to make the ruling on which ball's score to count. Once a round is completed, a player can NOT return to the course to correct an error. That player should have been disqualified from consideration for weekly prizes.

Golf Club

The Juniper Hill Wednesday Ladies Golf League was established in the late 50s. Our goal is to promote competitive 18-hole play for ladies with an established USGA Handicap and to promote friendship and camaraderie. We have various formats of play each week and Match Play in the month of July. We participate in various tournaments sponsored by the Juniper Hill Ladies Golf Club. We also sponsor an invitational tournament, "The Juniper" which draws the best women golfers in Kentucky, Indiana and Southern Ohio.

The Late Swingers Ladies League was established in 1980 to promote and support women's golf in and around Frankfort. The league's goal was, and is, to have fun while playing golf.

Please note that if your handicap is 40 or higher and you are playing with someone with a handicap under 40 then the team will play 18. If both players have handicaps which are 40 and above, then the team will play 9.

There is a sign up sheet at Juniper. You are to make your own groups and get your own tee-times. If you do not have someone to play with, please go ahead and sign up as an individual on the sheet and let Donna McNeil or one of the tournament committee members know.

How to Kill a Club ...

DISCLAIMER: Ladies, we are all big girls. When you read this, have an open mind. If it applies to you, fix it. If it doesn't apply to you, continue to do great things. Remember, we are all human and we can always improve.

Don't be fooled by the title – we are not talking about a golf club that you use to play the game. We are talking about the golf club, as in the JHLGC. While we are the largest ladies golf organization in the state of Kentucky, we have slowly seen our membership numbers decrease. The reasons for the decline are many, and some of those are out of our control (medical issues, moved out of the area, death, work conflicts, financial issues). There are things that we can fix, but it requires the cooperation of all our ladies. Following is a list of things we should not do if we want our great organization to flourish:

1. Constantly complain about everything – leadership, rules, events. Make sure those complaints offer no constructive suggestions.
2. Never volunteer to serve as an officer or on any committees. Just leave all the work to other members. Then refer to #1.
3. Be unwilling to try new things. Always repeat loudly to everyone, “But we’ve always done things this way!”
4. Never attend any of the league or club meetings. Refuse to have a voice in electing new officers, deciding league/club policy, and offering suggestions for improving and growing our organization. When those officers are elected and policies are enacted, then refer to #1.
5. Always play with the same group. Ignore a single member waiting to find someone to play with. Do not be welcoming to new members. Maybe they’ll go away.
6. When in doubt, always refer to #1.

In all seriousness, it is vital that we make a cooperative effort to continue to entice new members to join our club as well as retain current members.

Toward that end, we absolutely should:

1. Make constructive suggestions that you feel would improve league play and/or tournaments.
2. Be an active member in the running of our leagues and club. We are always seeking new ladies to step up and serve as officers or to be part of our various committees. You don't have to have a low handicap to be a great asset!
3. Keep an open mind when new ideas are suggested. What worked great 20 years ago might not be the best option today. We must continue to adapt to our ever-changing membership.
4. Be involved! Attend club & league meetings and have your voice heard. While it may be convenient to “just show up and play,” our organization cannot run itself. Many hands make light work, so pitch in where you can. We have some members that serve in various capacities for long stretches of time. Step up and lend a hand!
5. Keep in mind everyone was a new member at one point in time. Did the existing members make you feel welcome? Did they invite you to join their groups for league play? Treat them as you would wish to be treated.
6. Remember our club's mission is to support and promote women's golf and act accordingly. We want the JHLGC to be around for many more years to come!
